The University of Turin, represented by the Rector, prof. Ezio Pelizzetti and

The Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte (Berlin), represented by the Executive Director, prof. Lorraine Daston.

In order to establish and maintain scientific research and teaching relationships between the two Institutions, make preliminary arrangements for an exchange programme between teachers and researchers and integrated scientific research and teaching activities.

Art. 1

The University of Turin, Department of Philosophy and Education Sciences, Italy, and the MPIWG, hereinafter referred to as the Institutions, agree upon a co-operation on the following topics:

- 1) History of Philosophy;
- 2) History of Scientific and Medical Thought;
- 3) Interdisciplinary History of Ideas.

The persons in charge of the programme will be:
Prof. Enrico Pasini, Department of Philosophy and Education Sciences of the University of Turin - Responsible of the Italian side;

Prof. Jürgen Renn and Pietro Daniel Omodeo, Max-Planck-Institut für Wissenschaftsgeschichte (Berlin), Responsible of the German side.

Art. 2

For the fulfilment of these investigations the Institutions agree to deepen their collaboration in the following ways:

- by carrying out joint research projects,
- by exchanging academics, researchers, technical-administrative staff and other specialists, students;
- by free admittance to the research facilities existing in the participating Institutions ;
- participation in conferences, symposia, congresses with scientific papers ;
- by exchanging scientific information and materials on conditions agreed upon;
- by joint publications of the results obtained in joint projects;
- by any other kind of co-operation that may prove useful to achieve the joint objectives.

The programme could be increased and modified according to the common requirements and to the development of the undertaken research.

Exchange of students has to be defined in specific additional protocols.

Art. 3

Within the limits of regulations in force in each country, the parties agree to find the financial means necessary to reach the above mentioned objectives. The expenses connected with this cooperation will be jointly identified and the resulting budget shall be agreed by both parties. The parties agree to give logistic support to the visitors.

Art. 4

Each person involved in all foreseen activities of this agreement has to provide himself with a suitable insurance covered by the Institution of the origin.

Art. 5

The present agreement will be of 5 (five) year duration, starting from the date of the last signature by the Legal Representatives of the contracting Institutions and after the approval of the competent academic authorities. Any modification of the present agreement requires the written approval of the parties.

The present agreement could be renewed, subject to the written approval of the academic authorities. In the case of a decision not to renew the agreement, the pattern of exchanges within the final year of the agreement shall be such as to equalise exchanges over the entire period of the agreement.

Art. 6

The present agreement has been written in the English language and will be signed in two copies. Each academic institution will keep one original document.
